Volume 44
Troy High School

A school is its students.
The end of a school year
is the end of a small segment in each student's life.
As the school year comes to a close—
As the segment of life is completed—
A moment must be taken to stop and reflect.

That momentous step!
Transformation from the twelve-year school world of the student
Into the next phase of life—
College, a job, vocational training, marriage, service—
Whatever the future holds.

However, before that step—that transformation is begun,
We hesitate a moment,
not in fear of the future,
but in reflection of the past.

As we turn and look, it is as if we are gazing into a mirror which is made up of many fragments, forming a mosaic.
Each small mirror representing some facet of school life
Is an intricate part of the overall mirror of our past.

Learning

Expression

Involvement

Spirit and Dedication

Friendship

Accomplishment

The mosaic is not yet finished.

The mirror is not yet complete.

Beyond the reflection,

In a time and place not yet in view,

lie more pieces to the design.

There lies the future.

Exchanging Vocations for Avocations

These six educators plan to pursue a new way of life. The present and former students of Troy High would like to wish them happiness and good fortune in the future. We would also like to express our sincere thanks for their dedication and service to the students and community of Troy.

HOWARD B. HOFFMAN—was employed as a mathemat'cs teacher in the high school in the year 1944-45, and also had coaching assignments in football and basketball. He was head football coach in 1953. He was made assistant high school principal in 1956-57; made acting principal of the high school in August 1964; and was full principal in August of 1965.

MRS. GLENN B. JEFFERS—January 1, 1955 through May 1956, Mrs. Jeffers taught at Kyle School. She then moved to the old Forest School in 1956-57. Later she taught at Van Cleve School in 1958-59. She was assigned to the Van Cleve School Library in 1959-60 and was made supervisor of the High School and Van Cleve Libraries in 1966-67. She also did some substituting prior to January 1955.

GLENN B. JEFFERS—came in August 1945 as the high school principal. In March, 1947 he was made acting superintendent, upon the sudden illness of Mr. Thomas E. Hook; and in August of 1947, after the death of Mr. Hook, he was made full superintendent.

MRS. CHARLES SECOY—came into the Troy High School as a teacher of English in 1958-59. She married Charles Secoy in June of 1962 and continued her teaching career until 1969-70.

CHARLES W. SECOY—came in August of 1947 as the high school principal and held that position until August of 1964 when Howard Hoffman was made Acting Principal; thus giving him more time to devote to Director of Secondary Education. He was made Director of Secondary Education in 1959-60. In 1966-67, he was put in charge of Adult Education (night school), Special Services in all schools, Home Instruction and the Federal Projects.

LEE M. MITCHELL—was employed for the 1955-56 school year as an elementary teacher and principal of Heywood School. He held this position until he was moved to the high school in 1959-60. He has worked in guidance and D.C.T., and also as Dean of Boys.

SERVICE

He has not served who gathers gold,
Nor has he served whose life is told
In selfish battles he has won,
Or deeds of skill that he has done;
But he has served who now and then
Has helped along his fellow-men.
The world needs many men today,
Red-blooded men along life's way,
With cheerful hearts and helping hands,
And with a faith that understands
The value of the simple deed
To serve another's hour of need.

Parting Messages

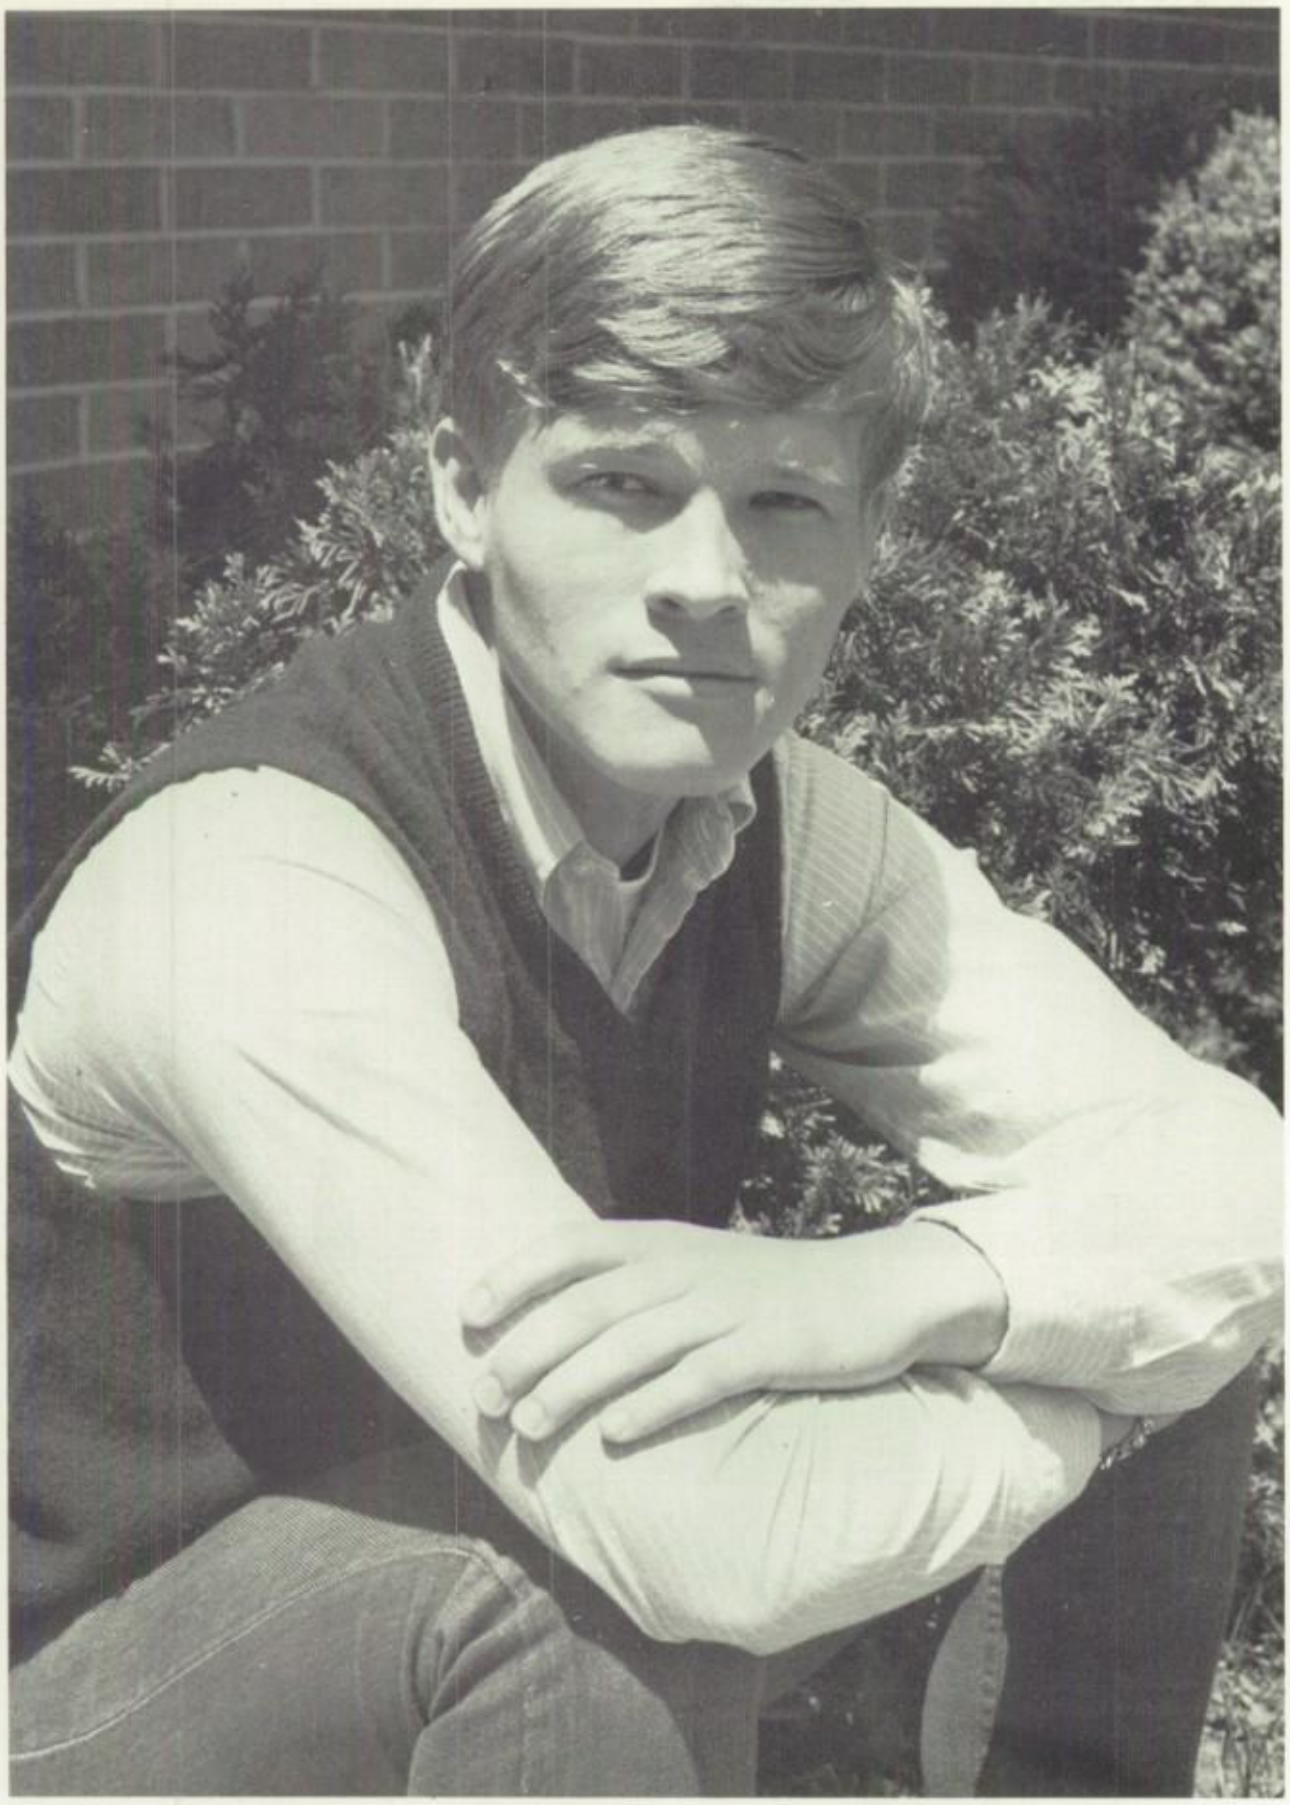
My dear friends in class "70"

It was a very good experience to meet you and learn about you. Now, I'm sad to go away from you. Many teachers were very nice to me and so were you! Your language and customs were very new to me and I was scared. I know I should have been more brave. It took me almost a whole school year to get used to it. I think I've learned this year how to react to strangers in strange places.

All those fun and new activities might disappear from my memory sometime, but I shall never forget how great an experience it was staying in Troy for one year. I hope you've learned from me as much as I've learned from you!

Good-bye!

Young Oak Cho



As the time of my departure draws near, the excitement and reality of being Troy's foreign exchange student to The Netherlands grows. The reality of the trip, that I was chosen as the exchange student, didn't sink in until early June. But when it hit me, it packed a powerful blow. Now I am eager to meet the many new people and am anxiously awaiting the experience in store for me.

Many people ask me if I'm not scared about leaving family, friends, and home for a year. Of course the trip does hold a small bit of doubt, but the new experiences and people I will encounter overrule any sense of fear or doubt I may have. I would not give up the experience for anything.

During my year overseas, I hope to compare many of the ideas the people of The Netherlands have about world issues to those ideas of the Americans. Next year will offer me many new ideas, and alter many of my existing ones. But, as the New York office of International Christian Youth Exchange has said, each person will obtain an entirely different effect from his year overseas. With the grace of God I hope I will represent the people of Troy with the respect they deserve. Good-bye, good luck, and may God bless all.

History of the Class of 1970

by

JAN FLORY and PAT THIEDEMAN

September 1966
Our class makes its start.
We all write the story.
We all play a part.

From St. Pat's and Van Cleve
To Troy High we did come.
And we found that A Catholic
Could be a good chum.

Oh yes, try to remember
Those first months here.
From top men to low men
We were the new kids here.

We were the freshmen
Lowest of low.
And the Seniors proved it
Blow after blow.

"Buy your Togas today"
The announcements would chime.
"Ten pennies for freshmen
All others a dime."

And of course for the car washes
Since we couldn't drive
They said they'd wash tricycles
"So the freshmen could ride."

Passing by the Senior bench
Gave us such fear
That we never went by Unless a friend we had near.

But we played our parts proud,
And together stuck we.
Soon, a freshman alone
You never did see.

And as security in numbers
Soon gave us heart,
We learned that together
Even frosh could take part.

Our boys stuck together
As they played on the field,
And brought us a Victory
Wrapped-up and sealed.

We were "Football Champs"
Undefeated all year.
Maybe the "Why?" was:
We hadn't found beer?

The thought of doing schoolwork
We tried hard to shun.
But our teachers soon showed us
There was work to be done.

From English and Math
Facts and figures were fed.
And we strengthened our bodies
In health and phys-ed.

To find the best program
Science classes were split.
And the class that had Earth Science
Was ready to quit.

Questioning their grades
They fussed and they fumed,
But Mr. T. didn't listen
Till they near burned down the room.

Soon June came around,
And we heaved a great sigh.
In all of this time
Only one year had gone by.

Our second year dawned
On fresh minds and fresh hearts,
And we came back to school
To make a new start.

This year we were accepted;
We'd passed initiation.
So we enthusiastically joined
Our clubs and organizations.

J.C.O.W.A. studied world affairs.
Cheers were learned in Block T.
Clubs became the big thing now.
And our athletes joined Varsity.

Others joined Drama
And starred in plays.
We all had our interests.
And we all went our ways.

In studying we found
Our enthusiasm wore thin
As we watched the assignments
Come piling in.

With Orgel we studied
New word after word.
But after the tests
They never were heard.

We wrote autobiographies
The "Story of Me"
That they were hurriedly written
Was easy to see.

We struggled through Biology
And didn't learn a bit,
But at least Phys-ed
Kept us physically fit.

Gym was coed this year—
Boys and girls together went.
But our boys wanted more
And looked through the vent.

In numbers we found
We soon lost the path.
As 4 different teachers
Tried to teach us math.

That Spring was sad,
And our spirits deflated.
As two of our nation's leaders
Were assassinated.

Our Nation's hearts were awakened
And open came eyes,
Action was needed
First sparks began to fly.

But as we grew older
And birthdays arrived.
We found a new pastime—
We found we could drive!

We sat through the films
They showed in drivers-ed.
We were cautioned when driving
To keep a clear head.

Then the year was over.
Sophomore year was done.
But still 2 years to go.
We wished it were one.

After the famed "long, hot summer"
We came back in style.
Juniors, and ready to work again.
That is—at least for awhile.

The classes we faced
Were harder than before.
This year wouldn't be easy
That much was for sure.

We learned our country's past
And about the "good ole' days"
Like when Harding was President
And crime really paid.

We tried to recopy our English
While those "new deals" were taught,
But all that we learned
Was how not to get caught.

When we finally got to English
We spent most of our time asleep.
Those term papers done over Sunday
Just put you away for keeps.

And as book reports and poetry
Loomed darkly before us once more.
We made up our own books,
And did poems we'd done before.

In chemistry we puzzled
Over what was in the box.
And our experiments in the lab
Even gave us some shocks.

But we soon found out
We weren't all dumb,
On the Honor Roll
Juniors were always number 1.

As upperclassmen we had officers
And a budget of our own.
And at last we could talk to Sophomores
With that superior tone.

For all school assemblies
In the bleachers we sat.
And when the underclassmen looked longingly
We just smugly laughed.

But looking at our status
Without being funny.
We knew we must work
And make us some money.

So we sold programs at the Stadium
Come rain, cold, or shine.
And although the team wasn't tops
We made lots of dimes.

The band marched in the dark
One night at a game.
While the electricians looked valiantly
For what was to blame.

And then before we knew it
Winter had come and gone.
Nixon was President
And Agnew his pawn.

With the end of the year
Our thoughts turned to Prom.
And as the work got hectic
We tried to stay calm.

We found that prom-making
Isn't as easy as it seems
But somehow we did it
And in May there was "Snowdreams."

After the big dance
We went on our ways,
And watched as the
Seniors counted the days.

Our chapels took on
A new look this year.
Sport coats and blue jeans
Became the fashion here.

With a breakfast and chapel
The Seniors ended the year.
And we bid them farewell
With a trace of a tear.

The rest of our days
Were short and few,
And before we knew it
They'd gone too.

Three years down
One Year to go.
We all hoped this next one
Would not go slow.

And then it finally happened
We wanted to cheer,
Finally, finally at last
Senior year was here.

So September '69
Back to school we all came
Expecting that 'most everything
Would still be the same.

We took government from Fletcher
To learn of our nation;
And the new teacher, Hershiser,
Taught international relations.

All the other subjects,
Were the same as before:
Loads of homework to do
And classwork a bore.

Those first days went slow—
All was lazy and quiet.
We wished something would happen—
Why, even a riot!

Then one night was a party
With no quarrels or fights
But too many drugs
Went and ruined the night.

And from that night on,
This town was on its toes:
"No drugs in this city—
And what we say goes!"

Oh, yes, that party
Had lit Troy's fuse
And now all discussions
Concerned drug abuse.

Our football boys found
That now they were dragging.
And even our school spirit
Soon started lagging.

But then, as homecoming time
Was getting real near.
The spirits started rising
And drugs lost their ear.

The court was selected,
But we soon found a lack:
Not one of the girls
Was even near Black!

The discussions that followed
Were useful and good,
But then folks from the outside
Said more than they should.

Tempers grew short;
Good thinkers were few;
Calling off the dance
Was all they could do.

But the game went on
With no known disorders,
And the Senior concessions
Made lots of quarters.

A class in Black History
Was added to the list,
And many learned facts
That in History they'd missed.

With all our town's problems
We almost forgot
That in Viet Nam was a war
Where people were shot.

But the nation remembered
And when October had come,
First plans were created
For Moratorium.

The administration was troubled
They fumed and they fussed
But for many of the students,
Moratorium was a must.

Our authorities foresaw
Our school fall apart—
But they didn't realize
This was only the start.

The moratorium heightened problems
Between "hippy" and "jock"
And their differences went deeper
Than "who" wore "what."

And although to many
It didn't make sense,
Things got "pushy"
Things got tense.

It all came to a head
During an assembly one day
When some students disliked
What the speaker did say.

The administration apologized
To smooth over the mess,
But our infrequent chapels
Were now even less.

Assemblies were limited
Nothing controversial.
So we had speakers on pollution
And things educational.

Everyone seemed to lack
That dire communication,
So the Student Council tried to help
In mending the situation.

To promote better contact
And taking a part,
First period representation
Was really just a start.

The cry of student rights
Did impose one new rule,
Now even the girls
Could wear pants to school.

More earth shaking news
Occurred by the moon,
When Houston had to bring
The boys back real soon.

Other events around Troy
Helped keep things exciting.
Like fires and bomb scares
And a lack of school lighting.

There was good ole' Uhlmans
That burned to the ground,
And as far as the bomb goes,
IT wasn't found.

Then, we all went home early
When we couldn't see,
'Cause the lights all went off—
Thanks to a tree!

Then one day in the lobby
We saw glass on the floor
And we came to find out
A boy had walked through the door!

Then our duty as Seniors
We decided to try.
Chicken Dinner was successful,
Except we lacked pie.

As if cleaning those tables
Wasn't enough
On April 22nd
We picked up more stuff.

For Earth Day most worked
Picking up bottles and wrappers
Though it was obvious some hadn't
By the assembly right after.

Well, school was near over,
And we all felt relieved
But then with the nation
We soon found we grieved.

The war moved to Cambodia
And hearts filled with hate.
Violence soon started
And killed four at Kent State.

By this time we feared
Our year had flopped
But we weren't going to let
Our elections be stopped!

So MYSTIC and FORUM
Now came alive
And to put people in office
Each party did strive.

Then, in one last attempt
To do something normal,
We succeeded in having
A dance that was formal.

The decorations were beautiful,
The music sublime.
With the theme "On Broadway"
We had a good time.

As we danced that last dance
We held back a tear.
The party was over—
The end was now near.

Yes, the end now approaches—
And some relieving sigh
Others happily cheer
Yet some feel they must cry.

Looking over the year
In our own kind of poll.
We find it a hard one
That has taken its toll.

The staunch Administration
Has really tried their best
But 3 have decided to retire
And finally get some rest.

The four years are over—
Can it really be true?
Have we done all those things
We wanted to do?

We've come a long way
As we've traveled these halls.
Let it not be forgotten
As we meet the future that calls.

May we take from these years
The good times and bad
And let not the memories
Make us all sad.

Our class was unusual—
To each his own part.
And into the world
We all must now start.

"It was a pretty good year ..." Although this is not the usual phrase used to describe a 2-7-1 season, it does describe the improvement made by a very young team.

The Trojans opened the '69 football season with only six seniors on the starting line-up. The rest of the positions were open to sophomores and juniors. As the season progressed, these young players gained experience—a fact which was evident in the last two games. Troy lost to Fairborn by only two points and tied against Wayne.

Two members of this team were also recognized as being superior ball players. Mike Jackson, a junior, was awarded Honorable Mention at All State and Gordon Bell was third leading scorer as a sophomore.

VARSITY BASKETBALL—Row 1: J. Ingle, J. Elliot, D. Martin, Coach Denari, B. Dickensheets, J. Price, T. White. Row 2: Manager—L. Fields, D. Dickensheets, M. Welty, R. Hile, M. Welty, M. Grilliot, B. Radamachir, Manager—B. Moffitt.

"I can't quite hear you Coach. Watch out for the what?"

CAPTAIN—Darryl Martin

The Troy Varsity Basketball Team, after three years of sticking it out together and playing as a strong united team, ended the season with a very respectable record of 13-7. The graduating players have ended their high school varsity career knowing they have really come a long way from the 2-17 record they had when they were sophomores.

Trojan Grapplers Finish 4-2

The Troy High School Wrestling Team, headed by new head Coach Mike McCarthy, battled their way to a 4-2 win-loss record this year. The aggressive young grapplers won first place in their own tournament and placed seventh in their district out of 27 teams. Senior Bill Doll won first place in the Troy District and earned the right to compete in State competition in Cleveland. This year was basically a rebuilding year with a lot of fine sophomores and juniors getting valuable experience for the years to come.

April 26, 1954—April 11, 1970

All mankind is of one author and is one volume; When one man dies, one chapter is not torn out of the book, but translated into a better language;
and every chapter must be so translated
. . . God's hand is in every translation.

—John Donne

As a Junior it's your turn
For the prom to be host.
Not only that,
You're a Senior—almost.

Board of Education

This year the Board of Education has been confronted with challenging situations. Besides the usual task of raising funds, proposing school levies, and making policy decisions, they have been directly involved with events happening within the school. They have made a sincere effort to meet and deal with these problems.

Custodians and Cafeteria Workers

Not much is heard about the custodians or cafeteria workers, but they are an important part of the school staff. Although rarely seen by the students, they are always behind the scenes working; consequently, many students never get to know the personnel responsible for keeping the halls clean and fixing the meals at lunchtime.
